Note: The information in this guide was compiled from United Way of CT 2-1-1 and New Haven Youth Map in Fall 2010. Inclusion in this directory does not constitute an endorsement of any of the programs, herein, on the part of United Way, New Haven Public Schools or the City of New Haven. If your organization is not included in this listing or the information is inaccurate, please contact 2-1-1 and Youth Map directly to submit or update your information.

Fall 2010

Dear Friends,

As part of the New Haven School Change Initiative, The City of New Haven, New Haven Public Schools, and United Way of Greater New Haven have created an exciting new partnership – Boost! – designed to coordinate wraparound services that will support students' development and enhance their ability to focus and learn in the classroom. We believe that the Boost! partnership will help us achieve our common goals: to reduce the achievement gap between New Haven and the rest of the state, cut the dropout rate in half, and ensure every graduating student has the academic ability and financial resources to attend and succeed in college.

In order to coordinate community resources, Boost! will collaborate with community-based and nonprofit organizations, parents, government agencies, businesses, and schools to ensure students receive supports and services in the following four areas:

- Physical Health
- Emotional and Behavioral Health
- Extended Learning Opportunities
- Family Support and Engagement

For the 2010-2011 school year, Boost! is being piloted in five schools, and will expand to all New Haven Public Schools over next five years. The pilot schools are Augusta Lewis Troup School, Barnard Environmental Studies Magnet School, Clinton Avenue School, Metropolitan Business Academy and Wexler-Grant Community School.

As part of the Boost! effort to improve access to community resources, the partnership has produced this Resource Guide, which is mapped to the four focus areas of Boost!. This guide is meant to help inform parents, students, schools, and the community about available programs and services for children and families in the New Haven region. In the future, our vision is to have all this information available in one easy online location. For now, we encourage you to take advantage of the organizations and programs summarized in this guide, as well as the existing online resources that were utilized to create it: United Way of Connecticut 2-1-1 and New Haven Youth Map.

We look forward to continuing to work together to support the healthy development and education of our community's children and families.

Sincerely,

John DeStefano Jr.
Mayor of New Haven

Dr. Reginald Mayo
Superintendent
New Haven Public Schools

Jack Healy
President
United Way of Greater New Haven

Utility assistance through the Connecticut Energy Assistance Program (CEAP) and Contingency Heating Assistance Program (CHAP) helps low income households pay their primary heat source bills. Energy payments are determined by family size and gross income, and by whether a household is classified as "vulnerable". Vulnerable households have a member who is under age 6, who is 60+, or who is any age and disabled. (Vulnerable household criteria does not apply to households with income above 150% FPL)

Eligibility: Resident of Branford, East Haven, Hamden, New Haven, North Haven or West Haven experiencing a non-recurring, unexpected, documentable hardship; MUST have received a notice to quit or notice of foreclosure; Income must be at or below 60% of the state media

Eviction and Foreclosure Prevention Program (EFPP) offers assessment, mediation, and financial assistance for low income Connecticut residents experiencing a non-recurring, unexpected hardship who have past due rent or mortgage payments and who have received a notice to quit or notice of foreclosure. The amount of assistance is determined on a case by case basis; however, the maximum allowable grant is $1200. The amount of arrearage is one determinant of the amount of the grant; it is possible that people with very high arrearages may not be able to be helped. This is NOT an entitlement program. Monthly rent/mortgage cannot exceed 60% of gross monthly income; Must be able to document a severe hardship which is not chronic or recurring; Landlord must be willing to cooperate with mediation process; Other restrictions may apply.
